As Co-author, I acknowledge that certain Chapter 4 issues, i.e.

A.) references to death before Adam's sin; (vs. Rom 5.12, 1Cor 15.21);

B.) evolutionary bias-based "scientific" dating of the fossils that supposedly witness same; and

C.) the taking Jer. 4.23-26 out of its clear context, as support for such a "pre-Adamic civilization," represent Theory of Evolution-accommodating doctrines, and that our offering of these Chapter 4 views at the time of publishing did not represent contemporary creation-supporting scientific evidences which fully embrace the inerrancy of the original Hebrew and Aramaic scripture texts.
